2026

HALLOWEEN AT BEAMISH

THE UNLIVING MUSEUM OF THE NORTH

WHAT'S ON

www.beamish.org.uk

Trigger Warning:

This is a Halloween event with jump scares, hanging scenes and areas with bright lights. Please speak to a member of staff if you have any additional queries.

1900s Town

- Collect your stamp card from the Co-op, The 1900s Town stalls or the emigration agent's and complete a series of daring challenges around The 1900s Town to become a fully-fledged witch or wizard. Completed certificates available from the print shop.
- Join us for a truly haunting disco in our Masonic Hall throughout the night. Be sure to enter our Best-Dressed competitions at 7.30pm and 8.30pm!
- Head to the bank to collect your very own magical coin.
- Be spellbound in our emigration agent's as you make your own magic charms.
- There are spooky sights to see at the carriage house.
- Our park bandstand is home to The White Witch Glow Show at 6pm, 7pm, 8pm and 8.45pm.
- At our Co-op, be sure to complete your magical look, with face painting and costume try-on.
- Come and create a spooky friend in our garage.
- Pop into the chemist's for wand-making.
- Make your scariest face at the photographers' studio (extra charge applies, on a first come, first served basis).

Fairground

- Don't forget to visit the frightful Fairground for a spin on the thrilling rides! (extra charge applies).

1950s Town

- Things are getting hairy at Elizabeth's Hairdresser's, step in and get a haunting hairstyle (extra charge applies, appointments available on a first come, first served basis).
- Visit some Deadly & Dangerous animals in the welfare hall.
- There's a crime scene in our police houses, can you solve the mystery?
- Alien alert! What has arrived at the council houses?
- At 6pm, 6.45pm, 7.30pm and 8.15pm, enjoy a paranormal information film (PG) in the Grand cinema.
- Pop along and meet some spooky guests on Front Street.

1900s Pit Village

- Things are getting mystical in Francis Street, with Tarot (No. 1) and crystal ball readings (No. 2).
- Watch out for the stiltwalker and moving house as you wander the back lane and Colliery Yard.
- There's nothing like the screech of the saw violinist to calm your nerves in the chapel, or stay for a tale or two with the spooky storyteller.
- Enter the school for some Halloween tunes from Off Key Music (7-9pm).
- See Count Ocular and The Unusualist running alternate shows in the band hall.

Colliery Yard

- The night's aflame with fantastic fire shows at 6pm, 7pm, 8pm and 9pm.
- What's that on the gibbet near the heapstead?

Birch Wood

- A walk in the woods could be a lovely way to pass the time. But wait, is that something moving in the trees?

1820s Pockerley Old Hall (advised for adults and older teens)

- There are more than a few ghosts roaming the grounds of Pockerley Old Hall – do you dare to visit the oldest original building in Beamish after dark?
- At Pockerley fields, have your camera ready for some startling sights.
- Plus, a family-friendly dissection is underway in the pole lathe shed, and head to the pottery for family activities.

1820s Waggonway

- Labyrinth Fire Show at 5.45pm, 6.45pm, 7.45pm and 8.45pm.
- There's something truly devilish down at Pockerley tram stop.

Catering that you can really sink your teeth into...

- 1900s Town: Tea Rooms, Herron's Bakery, WH Smiths, Delicious Ices and park stall.
- 1900s Pit Village: Sinkers' Bait Cabin, Davy's Fish and Chip Shop and Miners' Institute.
- 1950s Terrace: Middleton's Fish and Chip Shop, John's Café and Milk Bar.
- 1820s: Drovers Tavern

Details correct at time of printing. Beamish reserves the right to alter the programme without prior notice.
Please note, the Team of Terrifying Photographers will be taking pictures throughout the evening. Images may be used for Beamish promotions.