

Housemark

Disruption and Innovation in Housing in the Devolved Nations

Tuesday, 2 and Tuesday, 16 November 2021 #DINS2021

Two-day places start from £169

Early bird pricing available until 9 July. Secure yours today at www.housemark.co.uk

Delivered in partnership with

Disruptive
Innovators
Network

In its third year, this exciting and stimulating event, delivered in partnership with the Disruptive Innovators Network, brings together sector influencers and inspirational speakers to motivate and challenge you to do things differently.

Designed with Devolved Nations in mind, we'll explore the power of data and innovation in your organisation.

The conference will take place virtually over two days in November (2 and 16) and offers delegates the chance to network, collaborate and keep their fingers on the pulse of what is happening both in and out of sector.

Why attend?

Hear from inspirational speakers who challenge the status quo to reimagine service delivery and future operations.

Who should attend?

Housing leaders who are ready to redefine what's possible for their customers, their people and their business.

Network, collaborate and unlock the potential of innovation

DAY ONE

The future workplace – diversity and innovation

Tuesday, 2 November

- ◆ Transitioning to hybrid remote working
- ◆ Diversity, equality and responsible AI
- ◆ Building an agile business for the future
- ◆ How to build a successful team

DAY TWO

Sustainable housing and digital communities

Tuesday, 16 November

- ◆ Green innovation – improving the sustainability of your business
- ◆ Smart homes and IoT in housing
- ◆ Digital infrastructure – improving your digital reach
- ◆ Using technology to build sustainable communities

Day two sponsored by openreach

Secure multiple places for your organisation and receive preferential rates.

For more information contact monika.gouws@housemark.co.uk